A HEATHEN CHINESE.—An unusual tit-bit is now going the rounds of fashionable gossip, says the New York Star, relating to the strange fancy of an up-town belle for a veritable "heathen Chinese."

The young lady in question is an exceedingly stylish and handsome brunette, who has been splendidly educated at the Georgetown Convent, where she graduated about a year ago. Since that time she has been the sole mistress of her father's elegant and aristocratic mansion near Murray Hill.

The young lady is motherless, and an only child. She has been indulged in every whim by her fond father, who is immensely proud of his daughter's beauty and accomplishments. About six months ago the father took into the household as butler or steward a remarkably clever and intelligent Chinaman. "Cat-like, dreamy-eyed, yellow, and slim," the new butler performed his duties admirably. It was not long, however, before the almond eyes of the Asiatic and the sparkling orbs of his beautiful mistress interchanged many glances of admiration whenever the duties of the household brought them together in consultation.

Long and more frequent became their interviews. More and more interested were they in the household accounts and—with each other. The servants whispered among themselves about the strange intimacy between their mistress and that "Heathen Chinese," whose suile was so child-like and bland. About two weeks ago the father came home unexpectedly, and, entering the library suddenly, was horrified at the sight of his lovely daughter in the arms of the loving "Celestial." The way that he went for that "Heathen Chinese" could have gladdened the heart of Mr. William Nye, could he have witnessed the scene that ensued.

In vain the daughter cried and pleaded her love, avowing her determination to marry him. It only added fuel to the flame of wrath consuming her father's heart. John was forcibly convinced of the necessity of an immediate departure, not only from the house, but from New York also. Bountifully supplied with "Mellian man's money," he is now fast nearing China, leaving his lovely and loving daughter, surrounded by watchful eyes, to mourn the loss of her Mongolian lover, and to await with resignation the "coming man."

THE TRANSIT OF VENUS.—It will be welcome news to astronomers throughout the world (says Nature) to hear that the Board of Visitors of the Royal Observatory have determined to ask the Government to grant the sum of £5,000 to enable photographic observations to be made of the approaching transit of Venus. It is a matter of wonder that now, when the labors of De la Rue and Rutherford have brought this most perfect means of astronomical record to a pitch of perfection which it is scarcely needful to surpass, it is still ignored in official observations. In the matter of the transit of Venus it will more than double the chances of success, and Mr. Rutherford has shown that in other inquiries it enables an only moderately skilled person to do in a month what a Bessel would require years to compass by the old method. There is no doubt that the appeal to the Government will be successful.

THE CRUST OF THE EARTH.—If we bury a thermometer fifty feet below the surface of the earth the mercury will remain at the same point the year round, in winter and in summer, showing that the influence of the sun does not reach below that depth. If we carry the thermometer fifty feet lower, the mercury will rise one degree, and will rise in the same ratio for every fifty feet we go down. It can be easily calculated at what depth all known substances will melt. This would not exceed, in part, of the earth's diameter, nor so thick as an egg-shell, in proportion to the size of the egg. With a crust so thin, constantly cooling, and producing a pressure upon the internal masses, it is not strange that the bed of the ocean should be elevated in a single day, and whole cities have been sunk in the same space of time.

THE NEWSPAPER.—The editor of the Fredericksburg News, who has had considerable experience in the newspaper treadmill, and who is therefore qualified to speak knowingly on the subject, thus refers to the recent connection of Mr. A. H. Stephens, with the Georgia press. "Mr. S. will find it requires more brains, more mental strain, to edit a newspaper than he ever found it required to practice law, or to be a member of Congress, however ignorant people may think to the contrary. When to be silent, what to keep back, have all its effect, Mr. S. will have most difficulty in keeping silent."

CHARLES READE has invented another woman that strides "like a camelopard" when she's in a rage. There was one of the sort in "Griffith Gaunt," and now one has come upon the scene in "A Terrible Temptation." Mr. Reade appears to be quite unconscious of the possible effect of this sort of thing among our imitative fashionable young women. The "Griffith Gaunt," the "Camelopard" and the "Boston dip" have been bad enough; but if they are succeeded by the "camelopard" and the novelist must be sternly cautioned to abstain in future from zoological illustrations.

The suit of Whartanby vs. Gilmore, in the U. S. Court for the district of Delaware, has just been tried, and a verdict rendered for plaintiff, which has the effect to make the present title, which the builders of the town of Clayton, including the Delaware railroad, with its depot, and confirming the title in a strait-jacket, named James Whartanby, from California.

Probably the first instance in history of a woman having been buried with military honors was that of Miss Esther Johnston, a young English woman connected with the German ambulance service, who died recently at Chalons, and was buried with military honors by the Prussians.

Joaquin Miller, who is described as "an undiluted American of the West, a rough, unvarnished Californian, an original fiery-niner and genius," has suddenly risen to great fame in England as a poet.

All the steamers sailing for Europe from New York on Saturday again went out full, or nearly full.

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.
DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all

DISEASES OF IMPURITUDE.
Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Nervous Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirit, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men, of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to extacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualifying condition, should consult a physician.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young men, be warned! Do not let common excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Insomnia, General Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury! Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the education of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears, nervousness, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, uniting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of spirits, Eruptions, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are rightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating

MARRIAGE.
Reflect that a sound mind and body
